

ENZO SENESE

Coach, Chicago

A lifelong golfer with over two decades of experience, Enzo brings technical expertise and upbeat energy to the Chicago School of Golf. Raised in Geneva, Illinois, he discovered his passion for the game under the mentorship of renowned instructor Jeff Schmidt, shaping his player-focused approach to coaching. Enzo studied Mechanical Engineering at the University of Alabama, using his analytical background to understand the physics behind every swing. Before joining CSOG, he worked at Club Champion, one of the nation’s top custom club-fitting companies, and as a lead caddie at Stonebridge Country Club, gaining insight into course strategy and player psychology. His teaching philosophy focuses on individuality,meeting each golfer where they are, building confidence through positivity, and helping players unlock their best game.
